

Top jeweler moves into Tower One penthouse

The Hutchinson Metro Center has announced that Buccellati Jewelers, one of the world's leading jewelers, has moved its headquarters to the 42-acre office complex.

Buccellati Jewelers has signed a 7,000-square-foot lease on the penthouse level of the new Tower One office building. Buccellati, a premier name in the jewelry world for almost 100 years, is moving from Sleepy Hollow in Westchester County, NY.

"We are delighted that Buccellati Jewelers, a company renowned for its exceptional jewelry, is moving its offices to the Hutchinson Metro Center. We continue to attract businesses that are looking for Class A office space in a first-class location. In today's challenging economy, tenants are demanding more value.

And that's precisely what we're offering at the Hutchinson Metro Center where you'll find great amenities, flexible floor plans, free parking and a convenient location," said Joseph Simone, president of Simone Development Companies, the developer of the office complex.

Tower One features 260,000 square feet of Class A space on nine floors with four floors of covered parking.

The center features one of the most convenient and central office locations in the tri-state region as well as abundant free parking. The complex is accessible to major highways, bridges and airports. The northern suburbs and Manhattan are less than 30 minutes away. For leasing info call (718) 518-8600.
